Through the achievements of the members of its community, UdeM participates in building today's and tomorrow's world.

Clinical Teaching Dermatologist

Temporary Position (Replacement) – Full-time

Duration: 4 years

Faculté de médecine vétérinaire | Direction
Centre hospitalier universitaire (CHUV)

The Faculté de médecine vétérinaire (FMV) of the Université de Montréal is currently seeking qualified candidates for a clinician position in dermatology. The FMV is located in Saint-Hyacinthe, the agricultural capital of Quebec. The FMV is located 60 km (37 miles) from Montreal, a vibrant city with an international airport and excellent flight connections to Europe, the USA. The chosen person will work within the Centre hospitalier universitaire vétérinaire (CHUV) in collaboration with several specialists - anesthesiology, dentistry, dermatology, medical imaging, internal medicine, neurology, emergency medicine and intensive care - committed to providing the best veterinary care. This person will also work in collaboration with all hospitals and in this context, will be required to treat diverse species (cats, dogs, horses, birds, exotic animals, zoo animals, small and large ruminants). To find out everything about FMV and discover the excitement of its faculty life, visit our website.

As a clinician, you will have the opportunity to contribute to the excellence of the Faculté de médecine vétérinaire:

Through your teaching (for a maximum of 90% of the appointment), you will also ensure the visibility of your discipline and your research activities in addition to actively participate in the operation of a renowned institution (for a minimum of 10% of the appointment). As such, you will:

- > Participate in clinical teaching, including providing care and services to meet the various needs of the dermatology service's clientele;
- > Supervise undergraduate students during internships and graduate students in their programs;
- > Assess student learning;
- > Provide advice and educational assistance to students.

To succeed in this role, you must have the following qualifications:

- > A Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree or equivalent
- > A diploma from the American College of Veterinary Dermatology (ACVD) or the European College of Veterinary Dermatology (ECVD)
- > A license to practice from the Ordre des médecins vétérinaires du Québec
- > Work experience and/or clinical teaching experience in a university setting would be an asset
- > An adequate knowledge of the French written and spoken language or a strong commitment to mastering the proficiency level required, in accordance to Université de Montréal's Language Policy. An institutional learning support program is offered to all professors wishing to learn French or improve their communication skills.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Université de Montréal is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusion. Through its Equal Access Employment Program (EAEP), UdeM invites applications from women, Aboriginal people, visible and ethnic minorities, as well as persons with disabilities. During recruitment, our selection tools can be adapted in complete confidentiality according to the needs of people living with limitations who request them.

UdeM embraces a broad and inclusive definition of diversity that goes beyond applicable laws, and therefore encourages all qualified individuals to apply, regardless of their characteristics. However, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadians and permanent residents.

In order to measure the scope of its actions in terms of EDI, UdeM collects data on applicants according to their identification with one of the groups covered by the law on equal access to employment, women, Aboriginal people, visible minorities, ethnic minorities and people with limitations. The information provided is confidential and will be shared only with those responsible for the PAÉE. If you wish, you can indicate your membership in a targeted group in your presentation letter, which the selection committee and the assembly of peers will be informed of when your file is evaluated.

Université de Montréal's application process allows all members of the Professor's Assembly to review the application files submitted. If you wish to keep your application confidential until the shortlist is established, please mention it in your application.
